

Programming Info:

- Multiplatform content offerings: on-air, On Demand (available in standard- and high-definition), and online, including broadband content.
- Sundance Channel original series and destinations include:
  - Spectacle: Elvis Costello with...: With Elvis Costello as host and Elton John as executive producer, anything can happen on Spectacle: Elvis Costello With..., a new music/talk show featuring interviews and performances with a variety of musicians.
  - ECO-TRIP: The Real Cost of Living: Hosted by eco-adventurer David de Rothschild, the half-hour primetime program investigates iconic items from cotton t-shirts and paper napkins to salmon and cell phones, and follows their life cycle from production to disposal, revealing the environmental, social and health effects along the way.
  - The Lazy Environmentalist: Host Josh Dorfman will seek out environmental skeptics who are experts in fields as diverse as fashion, food, architecture, business and design in order to prove that a green lifestyle can meet the demands of their professional and private lives.
  - Big Ideas for a Small Planet: A documentary series presenting the forward-thinking designers, products and processes that are at the forefront of a new green world. Airs as part of The Green, a weekly primetime destination devoted to environmental topics.
  - Docday: A premiere of a new documentary film every Monday night at 9 p.m.
  - Sonic Screen: This weekly block of all-music programming leads off with an episode of the acclaimed series Live From Abbey Road at 9 p.m. followed at 10 p.m. by a music-oriented feature or documentary.